

Building Code Board of Appeals

The Building Code Board of Appeals is established to hear appeals of the Building Official's decision under section 112 of the International Building Code. This body consists of the Building Code Committee/Board of Appeals members convened as needed to sit as the Building Code Board of Appeals. The body does not hold a regular meeting sitting as the Board and is only convened upon request to the Building Official following payment and denial of an appeal to the Building Official.

An application for appeal to the Building Code Board of Appeals shall be based on a claim that the intent of this code or the rules legally adopted there under have been incorrectly interpreted, the provisions of the code do not fully apply or an equally good or better form of construction is proposed. The Board has no authority to waive requirements of adopted code.

To request an appeal, submit the "Appeal to the Building Official" form available under "Forms & Calculators" at www.pimaxpress.com/building with payment of the applicable fee posted on the web site.

Notices regarding meetings of the Board shall be posted at www.pimaxpress.com/building and within the main lobby of the Public Works Building located at 201 N. Stone Avenue, Tucson.
