Staff Recommendation: Staff recommends NO protection for this peak/ridge. The feature's silhouette is visible from Trails End Road, a scenic route, but blends in with the background and is not discernable. The land form is of neighborhood significance only. It is visible from Lost Canyon Drive, a private road within a gated community, Trails End Estates, a recorded subdivision. The land form is a rock outcropping and encompasses portions of three parcels, and would probably impact development.
